MINERS' COMMITTEE STILL HARD AT WORK

New York, Feb. 17.—The anthracite mine workers' committee of seven engaged in drafting the demands to be gaged in drafting the demands to be made on the mine operators, was in conference here today from 10 o'clock this morning until 5:30 this afternoon, with a short recess for lunch. There was no report given out as to the progress that has been made or when the committee expects to conclude its work, though it is generally thought that the formal draft of the demands will be ready for presentation to the operators' committee early next week. The miners' committee will be in session tomorrow.

The musical afternoon announced for the Woman's club at the home of Mrs. B. A. M. Froiseth, has been postponed, and instead the regular meeting will be held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Powers, 78 V street, Popperton.

Mrs. Helen V. Kimball will read a paper on "Some Late Discoveries in the Treatment of Infectious Diseases," and be in session tomorrow.
